Veterans Day and the Poppy

On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918, an armistice, or temporary cessation of hostilities, was declared between the Allied nations and Germany in the First World War, then known as "the Great War."

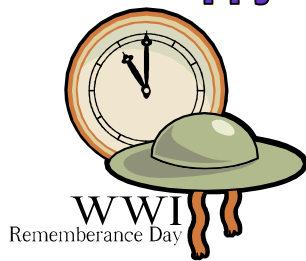

Commemorated as Armistice Day beginning the following year, November 11th became a legal federal holiday in the United States in 1938.

In the World War I battlefields of Belgium, poppies grew wild amid the ravaged landscape. How could such a pretty little flower grow wild while surrounded by death and destruction? The overturned soils of battle enabled the poppy seeds to be covered, thus allowing them to grow and to forever serve as a reminder of the bloodshed during that and future wars.

The poppy movement was inspired by the poem "In Flanders Fields" written by Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae of the Canadian forces in 1915 before the United States entered World War I. Selling replicas of the original Flanders' poppy originated in some of the allied countries immediately after the Armistice.

In the aftermath of World War II and the Korean War, on June 1, 1954 President Eisenhower signed legislation changing the name of the legal holiday from Armistice Day to Veteran's Day.

Veterans Day, has become a holiday dedicated to American veterans of all wars.

IN FLANDERS FIELD

In Flanders fields the poppies blow

Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Molly and Tom Kelly

On 6 September Molly & I traveled to Camp Horno for the 1/4 Change of Command ceremony. The ceremony never gets old!! Major Chris Bronzi received the command from Lt. Col. Ken Norton. After the ceremony, a reception was held at Puller's Post. It was a great day and I wish more of the Chapter members had attended.

As you receive this newsletter, the 1/4 will have already had their Birthday Ball. Molly and I will be attending. It is a great way to interact with our Active Duty Marines/Sailors and the spouses or girlfriends. I know we will have a good time as usual!!!

As the Holiday season approaches, there will be more opportunities for the chapter members to interact with our active duty Marines and Sailors. We will keep you posted as information becomes available.

Thanks again for all your support in keeping with the spirit of the Corps.

Semper Fidelis,
Tom Kelly

A Message From Our Chapter President, Myrl Wallace

bigwallace@comcast.net - (805) 937- 0156

Marines and FMF Corpsman,
Happy Birthday Marines! Yes it is that time of year once again. It is time to find a Marine Corps Ball, or luncheon in your area. It is important that we all participate in events such as this. It gives us a chance to meet and talk with other Marines that you may not have met before. It also give you a great recruiting opportunity to bring new membership into our association. We also have Veterans Day. There again it is an opportunity to get out and attend this important day and honor not only ourselves, but Veterans from the past that are not here with us any longer. Every VFW, American Legion post, Fleet Reserve Association branch, and Marine Corps League detachment will be doing something to honor all the Veterans of our country.

Thanksgiving is coming up in just a few weeks. It begins the time of year for family time, especially if your family is spread over a wide area. Make the effort to go and visit the kids and grandkids, or have them come to you. If everyone is in the area, set up dinners, and evenings to spend with your family. It makes for good memories on all sides of the family.

We have the start of the Christmas season, and of course our annual Christmas Party.

The information is in this very newsletter. Read it and get your reservations in. It is always a great day with great food and fellowship. After all, we are spending the day with Marines. What more could you ask for.

Semper Fi

Myrl Wallace

Retired Sergeant Major Gives His Medical Opinion

Bodfish Past President and former 1st Marine Division Sergeant Major was recently interviewed by a local Portland Oregon radio station.

Sergeant Major Jess Wise USMC Ret. shared his Marine Corps career and the proud traditions of our Corps with local radio listeners.

As the interview reached its final minutes the Sergeant Major was given facts by the radio host on the alarming increase in Alzheimer's and Parkinson's among veterans.

The radio host then asked the Sergeant Major, "Tell our listens Sergeant Major as an old Marine, at your ripe age what would you prefer to get Parkinson's or Alzheimer's?"

With out hesitation Sergeant Major Wise answered," Definitely Parkinson's!!! Radio Host then asked, " Why Parkinson's? Sergeant Major Wise replied, "Better to spill half an ounce of Scotch than to forget where you keep the bottle!"

A Word from Dick Cesaroni, Chapter Legal Officer

dick_rose@sbcglobal.net - 661-297-2028

1862-2012: The 150th anniversary of the most famous bugle call – The Story of Taps.

Of all the military bugle calls, none is so easily recognized or more apt to render emotion than the call Taps. The melody is both eloquent and haunting and the history of its origin is interesting and somewhat clouded in controversy.

Taps began as a revision to the signal for Extinguish Lights (Lights Out) a bugle call that was used as the final call of the day and as the name implies, it was a signal to extinguish all fires and lights. Up until the Civil War, the infantry call for Extinguish Lights was the set down in Silas Casey's (1801-1802) Tactics, which had been borrowed from the French, the music for Taps was adapted by Union General Daniel Butterfield for his brigade in July 1862.

As the story goes, General Butterfield was not pleased with the call for Extinguish Lights, feeling that the call was too formal to signal the day's end, and with the help of the brigade bugler, Oliver Wilcox Norton, wrote Taps to honor his men while in camp at Harrison's Landing, Virginia, following the Seven Days battle. These battles took place during the Peninsular Campaign of 1862. The new call sounded that night in July, 1862, soon spread to other units on the Union Army and was reportedly also used by the Confederates. Taps was made an official bugle call after the war.

Why the name Taps? The most likely explanation is that the name borrowed from a drummer's beat. In the beating of a bedtime roll-call three single drum strokes were beat to four-count intervals; this was known as the "Drum Taps" or in common usage of soldiers "The Taps" or "Taps".

It is not clear how or why Taps became associated with funerals. However, its earliest official reference for use at military funeral ceremonies is found in the U.S. Army Infantry Drill Regulations for 1891,

As soon as Taps was sounded that night in July 1862, words were put to music. The first were "Go To Sleep, Go To Sleep". As the years went on many more versions were created. There are no official words to the music but many popular verses exist today. Reference: Tapsbugler.com. Now that you all have read this gripping article, I know that you all will sleep a little easier tonight.

P.S.

I do have to apologize to an old friend's wife who I failed to name in my last article. Not only is she a beautiful and charming lady and much, much to nice to be hitched to that old fart Marine buddy of mine (whatever his name is) but a great cook who dished up some great vittles for Rose and me when we drove down to see them in Springfield, OR, during the reunion. Mia Culpa, Mia Culpa, Mia Maxima Culpa to Linda. We love ya both.

The Editor/Adjutant is back from vacation & on the job so I must keep this article in preset boundaries.

Until next month or whenever, I bid you all Semper Fi . Stay healthy and Keep it Legal.

Dick Cesaroni

Chapter Legal Officer

Editor's Corner

Dale Turner, Editor
(661) 253-1981 - dalefmda@earthlink.net

My September/October column suspension has come and gone. I'm pleased to be back but need to remain mindful and keep my political opinions to myself and not express them in my article. With that said, don't forget to vote on November 6, 2012. I'm voting for the American.

On Sunday, September 30, 2012 at 0945 I sustained a serious injury to my left knee. I have undergone surgery to repair the knee. Unfortunately the damage was so extensive that I will not be able to put any weight on the leg and will be confined to a wheel chair for the next five to six months while the metal screws, rods and plates, fuse with my old bones.

I have been labeled a "FALL RISK" and therefore a Fire Team from the Bodfish RECTUM has been detailed to flank my wheel chair and walker while on the move. I must say it gets a little crowded when I have to go to the head.

The Doctor says I should be able to walk on my own in about six months if I follow instructions and dedicate myself to therapy.

One of the challenges I have had to deal with is that I'm allergic or have bad reactions to all known pain medication.

I thank the good Lord that my pain tolerance is pretty high. The constant pain most effects me at night in bed. Long nights!

Emily and I thank all of you who have offered to help us out during my down time. You are all great and we can not thank you enough.

November kicks off our Holiday Season with our Marine Corps Birthday, Veterans Day, Thanksgiving followed with Christmas and Hanukah.

Our annual Chapter Christmas luncheon is one of my favorite events. I sincerely hope that those who can attend will do so. It starts at 1100AM and most of us are on our way home by 3PM. See Page three for more information

Emily and I wish you all a Happy Thanksgiving.

Semper Fi and Bodfish Forever! Dale

BODFISH SKINNY

.....or just plain BS
MYRL "IAS" WALLACE
PRESIDENT Feb 2012- Feb 2013

Marines, your Bodfish Past Presidents, IAS President, and a few other folks that had escaped from Casual Company were recalled to Temporary Active Duty for training against the dreaded middle eastern terrorists this past month. The training site was designated as Tar Spring Ranch. Our Esteemed Past President Dale "Captain America" Turner went in early on a recon mission. It is still unclear whether it was a training accident, or if middle eastern infiltrators attacked and severely wounded our Past President. With this being a forward recon mission, it was some time before aid came to SGT Turner, but he was successfully evacuated for medical attention and is currently recovering. In conversation with SGT Turner, he did say that it was an attempt to steal the Top Secret material that he had with him. I don't know if that was the pain killers that he was on at the time or not, because the Captain Black was right where it was suppose to be. I think maybe a ploy for a Purple Heart. Well maybe...further investigation may conclude that a medal is warranted.

The rest of the training period had SGTMAJ Bombay Bob Barron qualifying for additional MOS's of Tank Driver, Amtrack Driver, and Heavy Equipment Engineer. He did manage to knock down one of the buildings at the ranch. I don't know if Lindy Loomis, the owner, wanted that done or not. We did clean up the mess and scattered dead leaves all around to make it look "natural". We did do a lot of hard work. The temperatures were hovering over 100 degrees, so...as the Corpsman, I called for a hydration break and about 1030 every morning. These breaks lasted until about 2200 or 2300.

We got a lot of good hot weather training in, lead by our indomitable Captain of Marines Paul "Pork Rind" Young, SGTMAJ Barron, and with visiting instruction from John "Duke" Dumong on some sort of supply in the field, I think. All of us who attended feel that we are ready for action anytime that we are called upon, as long as it doesn't interfere with naps or cocktail hour.
